Andrew's parents migrated to the U.S.A in 1980s. Andrew was born in 1988 and his parents run a restaurant in Los Angeles. Andrew wants to become a restaurateur like his parents. He did MBA at UCLA and went to New York to open a restaurant. He successfully opened his restaurant in 2018 and has been running it well till Covid hit. His restaurant had to be closed due to rapid spread of Covid-19 in New York and he has been out of business for more than an year. He re-opened the restaurant in 2021, and since then he has been facing problems with attracting customers to his restaurant. Also, his staff did not return to work since the closure.

We are planning on innovating the hiring process for Chefs, kitchen staff, and also trying to promote the restaurant to the public.
